Fr. Tom Sullivan was born and raised in Havertown, Pennsylvania, and is part of the order of priests called the Father's of Mercy out of South Union, Kentucky. He is a passionate and down to earth preacher who conducts retreats and parish missions throughout the U.S. Prior to the priesthood, Fr. Tom owned and operated his own roofing company and worked extensively with the Missionaries of Charity throughout the world. He had a friendship with St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta, and in fact, it was Mother Teresa who encouraged him to be a priest!

Fr. Tom was one of only 800 priests in the world designated a Missionary of Mercy by Pope Francis. These specially designated priests are to be, as Pope Francis says, "living signs of the Father's readiness to welcome those in search of his pardon." They have been sent to diocese around the world to preach, lead spiritual retreats, and hear confessions. These priests are what one might call EXTRAORDINARY bearers of God's mercy! We are so blessed and excited to have such a priest with us on Divine Mercy Sunday, a special Feast Day devoted to the merciful love of God. Come and encounter the mercy of Jesus in a deep and profound way!!
